

The Armor of God

Bait Selection – Day 4

1. Consider again some of the people or circumstances you listed in that oval at the beginning of the week. In what ways, if any, might these issues reveal how the enemy has personalized his bait to hook you? How do one or more of these people or situations press a specific “hot button” for you?
2. Again – the person or circumstances you wrote down earlier – how might the enemy interpret this area of your life as being of benefit to the kingdom of God, and therefore target it for destruction?
3. Revisit your answer from a moment ago about your inclinations, tendencies, and “hot spots”. Now that you’ve considered the insight they give you into Satan’s strategies against you, can you think of any more? May as well be honest here. The more authentic you are, the more specifically you’ll be able to zero in on the enemy’s plans.
4. What practical parameters can you put around your life to safeguard yourself from the enemy’s attempts to bait you in this area of your life?
